5 great reasons to be a member

Your membership grants you access to a robust network committed to your professional growth.

1. Professional Development

BOMA Toronto's leading-edge curated education content delivered through webinars, live-streaming, conventional classroom style and training, is free to members and equips you with the knowledge to maximize your building's performance for every step of your career. Our members enjoy exclusive access to, and participation in our dynamic committees, task forces, coalitions, and Board of Directors.

2. Recognition and Prestige

Participating in awards programs brings the coveted spotlight to your achievements, offering a platform for recognition, celebration and prestige. BOMA's awards programs recognize top-performing property teams and individuals in categories focused on sustainability, building excellence, customer experience, and asset value. Compete for recognition locally, nationally, and internationally.

3. Mentorship

Create a powerful partnership that nurtures talent and fosters continuous development. Participate in the exclusive members only Mentorship Program and receive unique access to industry leaders. Whether seeking or providing guidance, mentorship is a journey of mutual empowerment and growth.

4. Industry Advocacy

Your BOMA Toronto membership solidifies our image as a dynamic and proactive advocate for regulatory updates across all government levels and industry-shaping initiatives. We're committed to driving change and staying ahead of regulatory updates at all levels of government, all while championing initiatives that shape the future of our industry.

5. Unlock Exclusive Access & Networks

Your membership opens the door to a world of opportunities, connections, and resources that are reserved for our valued members. Enjoy a host of exclusive benefits that give you a distinct edge in the industry, from insider events to premium content, access to an exclusive membership directory and much more.

Your membership is your key to an elite community dedicated to your success. Join us to help shape the CRE Industry.
